

Do you have the painting abilities of Picasso?

Or is paint by number more your style?

Either way, learn how to paint your own "Starry Night Nativity" masterpiece from MQHR's very own art teacher, Ms. Christina Romano.

Please join us for a fun-filled night benefiting the technology program at

MQHR on November 9th, 2018 from 7-9, in the cafeteria. Food will start at 7 and painting will begin around 7:15.

Wine, finger food, and all materials will be provided. The cost for the event is $45. All monies and registration forms need to be returned to the media center by November 2nd in order to ensure that enough supplies are available for all artists. Space is limited to 25 painters, so reserve early to ensure your spot.

We will also have lights available to add to your Starry Night, for only $5. Ms. Romano will explain how to include them in your masterpiece.

If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Kresslein at al.kresslein@maryqueenschool.org. We look forward to seeing everyone!
